

Situated in the historical center of Paulilatino between the main public square and the XIV th century church, dedicated to Saint Theodore, “la Foresteria del Teatro” is an ancient house of basalt stone of construction, typical of this area of West Sardinia.

At the initiative of the Theatre Unstable, the “Foresteria del Teatro” was born in 2001 as a small hotel for guest theatrical companies. Located in close proximity to the Theatre “Grazia Deledda”, it offers pleasant stays in comfortable rooms and a breakfast served in room from the cowshed-Manger in the ancient settlement.
